MORE INFORMATION

Please, tell us a bit more about your library, pictures are also welcome:

Short description: Viana is a small city in the north side of Spain (southwest of Navarra), with 4022 people (2012), and a long history. Public Library is actively working with schools in the city, so that students of 0 to 12 take advantage of the resources offered in different languages (english, spanish and basque language). There is also a book club for adult people; weekly storytelling for children; and activities to encourage reading and library use that develops throughout the year.

Current library programs:

- storing and promoting information about Viana.
- protecting and providing access to information
- developing and sustaining cultural, social, educational well-being
- cooperating with local community
- stimulating independence learning

Please tell us about the kind of activities you would be interested in doing with your sister library:

- exchange of information on activities to encourage reading and library use.
- specific projects for mutual cultural development.
